Education

Learn about and validate your knowledge of Apache Kafka® from Confluent, the company founded by Kafka's original developers.

Formal training is the foundation for building your team's Apache Kafka® knowledge and expertise in the field of data streaming, ensuring you long-term success by enabling the most effective use of the Confluent platform.
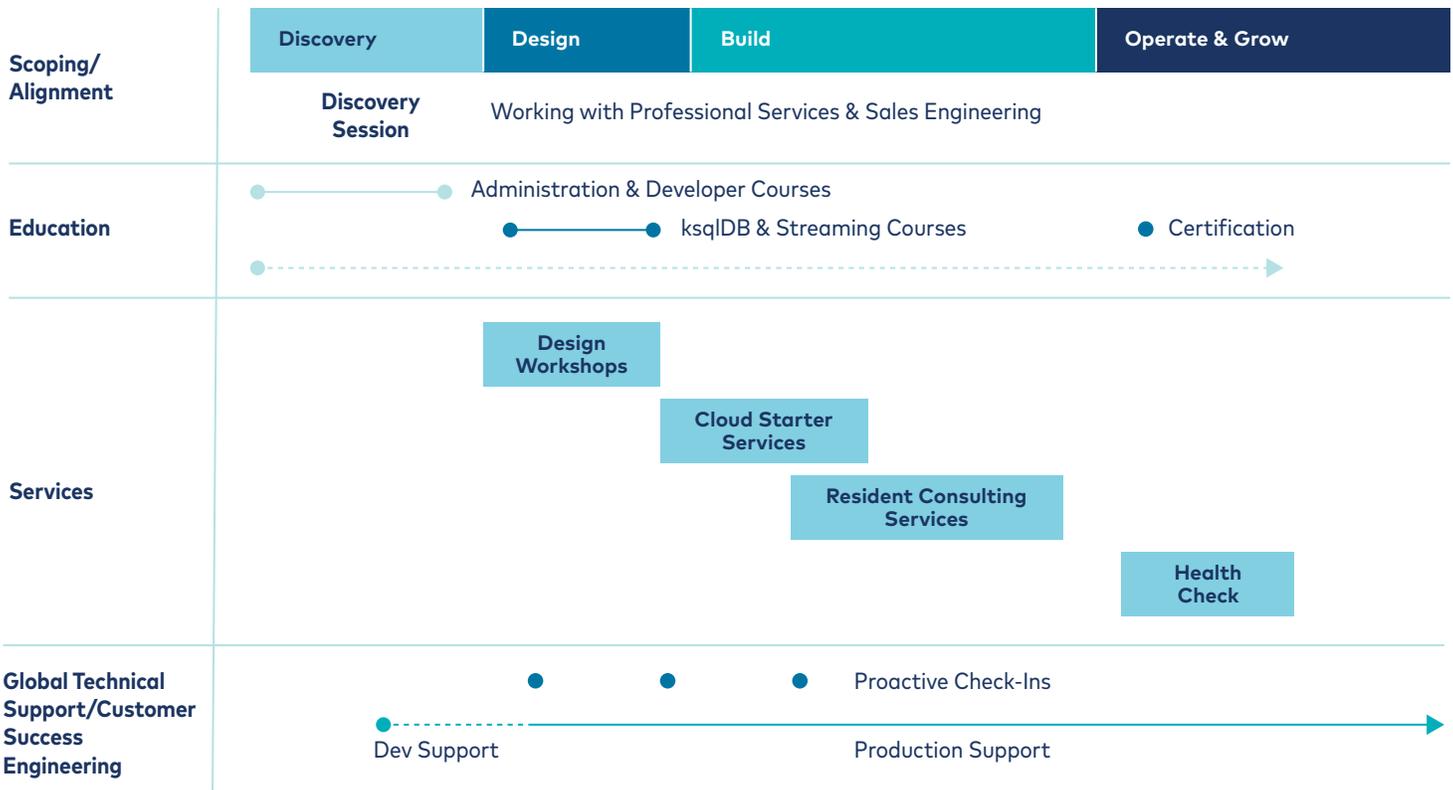

Courses are offered: for any platform implementation (relevant to Cloud, Platform and Hybrid); for developers, architects and administrators, at all skill levels; in a setting that is most convenient, around the world.

For those wanting to validate their knowledge and set themselves apart, we offer the ability to get Certified.

Aligning Customer Success to Customer Needs

Through our prescriptive approach to Customer Success, our teams work together, in parallel, to provide a comprehensive experience.

We deliver education resources when and how they're needed, to accelerate your development time and improve efficiency of applications through expanded usage and adoption.

Accessing our Education

We have options for both the Individual seeking training for themselves, or an Enterprise needing to educate a substantial employee base.

You choose based on preferred learning styles, and depending on the number of trainees:

Instructor-Led ("ILT") 3 days in a dynamic classroom, students interact with a peer group and expert instructors, complete with interactive labs designed to validate skills. Delivered virtually and in-person, ILT is offered:

Privately Live training with delivery tailored to customer's business needs. Ideal for training a large number of employees at once.

Publicly Train live alongside your community peers. Ideal for customers with smaller numbers of users to be trained at a time.

Subscription Offering flexible and differing approaches to education, a Subscription is the most flexible, effective and economical solution—no matter who you are, or where you're located.

Access to our comprehensive program develops the skills required to address and overcome a broad spectrum of business issues as they arise.
